Joint Statement by RPW & NRW

RPW & NRW Wholesale Merge

The refrigeration & air conditioning Wholesalers RPW and NRW are to merge and form a new operation to be branded as FSW

RPW has been renamed to FSW from 1st March 2010 and NRW Ltd becomes part of the new business from 28th April.

Fridge Spares (Northern Ireland) in Belfast also comes into the UK business as part of the group restructure.

There is a strong logic for the businesses to work together as both are built around the principle of knowledgeable experienced staff delivering high quality customer service. Comments Graham Hill

No branch closures are envisaged as part of the merger.

This merger consolidates the solid financial position of two sound companies, stated Mark Henderson.

The UK business will be managed by current RPW & NRW Managing Directors, Graham Hill and Mark Henderson.

The other members of the NRW Group, Just One Call Ltd, NRW (FM) Ltd and ESP Ltd will continue to trade as separate entities with no changes to the way they operate.

FSW is part of the Fridge Spares Group, controlled by Dermot Byrne which includes 3 branches in the Republic of Ireland.
